One of the social events of much interest and pleasure preceding the Morris-Moorman marriage was the miscellaneous shower given to the popular bride by the Misses Stone at the beautiful country home of their father, H. M. Stone, just west of this city on Saturday afternoon, December 26.

The records in the office of C. W. Crawford, county clerk, show seventy-seven marriage licenses issued during December, 1914. In December 1913 there were one hundred and eighteen issued. Could it be that any were deterred by the war revenue of fifty cents which must now be paid for every license issued?

In the rush of farm demonstration agent's appropriation and other matters pertaining to the county court it must be remembered that the county high school will hold a short course of instruction January 13-23 for the benefit of the boys and young men of the county who desire this instruction. Those who are interested should communicate with Prof. Dooley at once.

The Falcon's cabbage plant tickets are ready and one goes to every subscriber in THE COUNTY who pays his subscription for one year, until 100 are given out. Each ticket is good for five dozen frost proof cabbage plants just as in former years. Pay a year's subscription and get five dozen cabbage plants. Remember that only 100 can get these and when the 100 tickets are gone the offer will be withdrawn. 2-1

Dalton Wilson and Miss Pattie Steele were married in the fifteenth district on December 16, P. H. Downey Esq. performing the ceremony. This marriage was a green affair and took place while the parties were seated in their buggy. The groom is a resident of the fifteenth district and the bride lived in the second district with her mother, Mrs. Beulah Steele.

D. R. Rich of the Antioch neighborhood in the eighth district was in town a few days ago and gave The Falcon the weights of five hogs just killed by him. They weighed as follows: 418, 410, 394, and 250 pounds, respectively. A farmer who has hogs like these to kill each year and the other things that go with good hogs, is not likely to suffer much from the low price of cotton.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers" said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Lawyer:

"When a lawyer loses his nerve in front of the jury, his client had better plead guilty. That's why I always have a quiet, calming chew of PICNIC TWIST before court opens.

"While a man's chewing PICNIC TWIST he's thinking, not talking, and thinking wins more cases than oratory. And speaking of thinking—show me a jury of tobacco chewers and I'll show you a jury that will decide according to the law and the evidence."

PICNIC TWIST is the tobacco for men who like a soothing, sweet, long-lasting chew that won't get on your nerves, or cause them to get back at you.

The mild, mellow part of the leaf that goes into PICNIC TWIST makes it the sort of chew you'll like better than any dark, "heavy" tobacco you ever tried. And it will like you better.

His Somerville friends will be interested to learn that Lieut. W. E. Hobson who has been in the Philippines for nearly three years sailed on January 6 for San Francisco with his command, the 16th Regiment, U. S. Army, and that he will be at home on furlough during the coming summer.

In sending The Falcon his annual check for subscription, H. S. Taylor, of Arlington, Texas, a former Fayette countyman, has the following to say, all of which we appreciate. "Without flattering I can say you give us an excellent paper, defending the right kind of democracy, and you deserve praise for standing by your county and home towns. There is no section of country that excels it for the average citizen.

W. H. Leach Sr., has exchanged his home place just south of Somerville for a residence in Memphis and has rented the Granberry cottage on South Main street and moved his family to it. The new owner of the Leach home mentioned is I. B. Clement, now of Memphis, but who owns farm-lands in the Macon vicinity and also in Tipton county. He is a farmer and has a very interesting family, a wife and six children. They will move to this place at an early date.

Soon after the noon hour Tuesday an alarm of fire was sounded in the section north of the public square in this city and the whole male element of the town hastened to the scene of the fire which was in the attic of the servants' house in the yard of J. W. Morrison on West street in the northern part of town. The fire was extinguished without serious results, only the roof being injured and the furniture being water soaked. It is the property of Mrs. Jennie Farrar.

Friends of little Joe Bowers and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bowers, will be glad to learn that he is improving following an operation which was performed at the Lucy Brinkley hospital in Memphis a few days ago. He was taken sick during the holidays and rapidly grew worse until his physicians advised that he be carried to Memphis for an operation. His trouble, it is said, was an abscess on the appendix, which made necessary the same operation that is performed for appendicitis.

E. W. Starks has bought the stock of groceries and good will of the business conducted at the northeast corner of the square by Mrs. D. H. Maddox, and will conduct that business in future. Mr. Starks is well and favorably known in Somerville and community. He has lived here for a number of years and represented the Watkins Remedies for a long time, retiring from that business about a year ago. He will carry a complete line of groceries and bids for a part of the patronage of the public.

The writer heard a story of long and faithful services rendered told a few days ago. Otto Kornik told a group of his friends of having had the same colored woman do his washing for twenty four years without missing a week and without losing or misplacing a single piece of his linen. This is a splendid record of good service and is just as worthy of commendation as the service of a master mechanic who holds a lucrative position for that number of years. This creditable service belongs to Alline Cobb, and she is yet, every week, faithful to that duty.
